

How to purchase and download a file from Energy Magazine's online store

After you have chosen the file(s) you would like to purchase, click the Add to cart button at the bottom of the product description.

Once you click the Add to cart button, you have the option to view your cart immediately or you can click the X to close the window and go back to the store.

After you have added all your items to the cart, you are ready to check out and pay. Click on View Cart on the top right hand column of the website. It will show you how many items you have added and the current pricing. Once you click on View Cart, you will be taken to a login screen. If this is your first time purchasing from the Energy Magazine store, you will need to create a username and password. Click the bottom option Don't have an account? to set up your username and password.

You will need to provide a name, username, password, and email address. You will also need to correctly fill out the Captcha which is a security feature. Once you have filled in the information, click the Register button. Remember to write down your username and password for the next step as well as future purchases.

You will then be taken to the login screen once again. Login with your new username and password and you will be taken to your shopping cart. Take a look and make sure you have the product(s) you want to purchase and click Begin Checkout.

The next screen will ask for your billing address and contact information. After you have filled in the fields, click the blue Continue button at the bottom of the screen.

The next screen will ask you to select a payment method. Select PayPal and check the box agreeing to the terms and conditions. Then click the Continue button.

You should now see your order summary including the products you are purchasing and the total price. If everything is correct, click the Place Order button at the bottom of the screen.

This will take you to PayPal to process your payment. Once you have filled in the payment information, click the Pay button at the bottom of the screen. After your payment has been processed, you will receive an email from Info@energymagazineonline.com with your receipt and a link to download your purchase. The link will take you back to the Energy Magazine website to download your file. You can also go back anytime to the Energy Magazine website and download it under Products>My Purchased Downloads. (Note: You have a limit of two downloads per product purchased). Simply click Download on the Downloads page to save your product to your computer. The file is a zipped file and should automatically save to your desktop or downloads folder. Once it is saved on your computer, simply right click on the file and click Extract to unzip and open the folder.
